We'll guide you through the process with your home and host schools – and we'll help with the logistics you encounter along the way.

"I was so excited to live in Tbilisi for a semester, and somehow my time with SRAS exceeded my expectations! Not only did I improve my Russian language skills and gain an in-depth understanding of conflict and politics within the Caucasus and beyond, I also made a wonderful relationship with my host family. After knowing them for merely weeks, they told me that they saw me as their son and that I was a part of their family. I ended up remaining in Georgia following my college graduation and lived and worked there for a year, all thanks to the wonderful SRAS experience. I strongly recommend the program to anyone interested in gaining an advanced understanding of the region and anyone with even the mildest appreciation for an unforgettable adventure!" - Zack W.

"I absolutely loved my time as a student and intern in Warsaw! The classes were interesting and we often had guest lecturers that were specialists in the national/international security field.... This is the best study abroad program, in my opinion. I earned three classes worth of credit and spent my summer studying what I was interested in, seeing new places everyday, and traveling to new cities and countries on the weekend!" - Meghan L.
